'Diaz Report' copies available

Copies of the "Renewed Commitment to Excellence" report, also known as the "Diaz Report," are available for Marshall team members by requesting reproduction through the Service Request Catalog. See "Inside Marshall" for ordering details. The report, which cites ways that the findings of the Columbia Accident Investigation Board can be applied to other Agency projects and programs, also can be viewed online at <http://www.nasa.gov/home/index.html>, but should not be printed from the Web site or reproduced on self-service copiers.

SHARP mentors needed for 2004 summer session

The Marshall Center's Education Programs Department is seeking volunteers to work with students during the 2004 session of the NASA Summer High School Apprenticeship Program. The program offers high school students an opportunity to participate in an eight-week science and engineering apprenticeship. Marshall volunteers, including researchers, scientists and other engineering professionals, serve as mentors to the students. For details, or to volunteer, call Jennifer Simmons at 961-7544.
